Sound Banking for 110 Years at Slavia Federal Savings Bank
Local community bank shares anniversary with community on May 1, 2010

Bel Air, Md. - Slavia Federal Savings Bank celebrates 110 years of strength in the community with an anniversary event at its Bel Air headquarters at 1614 E. Churchville Road on Saturday, May 1, 2010 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The event, held on Slavia's official founding date, is free and open to the public.

"Our commitment to build strong relationships and stand firm as the financial partner for the community has reached a terrific milestone," says President and Chairman of the Board, Philip E. Logan. "We're excited to celebrate our 110th anniversary and share the integrity of community banking. We look forward to sharing this event with the community and invite all to join us."

Celebrating yesterday and Today's Slavia, the event entitled, "Slavia at 110," will include appearances by Greg Carpenter and Diane Lyn of 101.9 Lite FM, 2010 Orioles player Nolan Reimold and the Oriole bird, as well as Bubbles the Clown, who mixes in a bit of financial education into his balloon making and face painting fun. Guests will enjoy music from the WLIF 101.9 promotions van, games and giveaways, along with refreshments and activities for the entire family. A special grand prize drawing will be held for a three-night stay at the Princess Royale Resort in Ocean City.

Slavia's Overlea branch will also be celebrating this milestone with a customer appreciation event on April 30 and May 1, 2010, during branch hours. Customers and visitors can enjoy refreshments and flower giveaways, by Raimondi's.

Slavia's Bel Air location will be open for regular banking hours, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, May 1, 2010.
